Order of Detention Pending Revocation Heading

United States District Court WESTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

٧.

Dated: November 14, 2012

ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING REVOCATION HEARING

BRI	END	ON DESHAY DAVIS	Case Number: 1:06-CR-203
In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C.§3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts require the detention of the defendant pending revocation hearing in this case.
	(1)	The defendant is charged with an of	Part I - Findings of Fact fense described in 18 U.S.C. §3142(f)(1) and has been convicted of a (federal uld have been a federal offense if a circumstance giving rise to federal jurisdiction had a crime of violence as defined in	18 U.S.C.§3156(a)(4).
			ım sentence is life imprisonment or death.
		an offense for which the maxim	um term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in
		U.S.C.§3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or cor	er the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 mparable state or local offenses.
	(2)	The offense described in finding (1) was	committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local
	(3)	A period of not more than five years has the offense described in finding (1).	elapsed since the (date of conviction) (release of the defendant from imprisonment) for
	(4)	Findings Nos. (1) (2) and (3) establish	a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably n(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this
	Alternate Findings (A)
Ш	(1)
		for which a maximum term of ir under 18 U.S.C.§924(c).	nprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in
	(2)	The defendant has not rebutted the no	esumption established by finding 1 that no condition or combination of conditions will the defendant as required and the safety of the community.
	Alternate Findings (B) [1] There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear.
	(1) (2)		lant will endanger the safety of another person or the community.
_		Prisons on May 17, 2012. Upon h Defendant left that program on Au officer, and his whereabouts were	ember 22, 2011, as an institutional transfer, and was released by the Bureau of is release, defendant was referred to the Open Door Program for housing. gust 24, 2012. In doing so, he moved without permission of the probation unknown to the probation department for over one week. The probation although he made attempts to obtain defendant's (continued on attachment)
Part II - Written Statement of Reasons for Detention
Defendassure descri	his p	resence for future court proceedings	incing evidence that there is a condition or combination of conditions that will s based upon his failure to cooperate with the probation office and the court as rections Regarding Detention
Th correct order of facility proced	shall	deliver the detendant to the United	of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a ded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On lest of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections distates marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court

Signature of Judicial Officer

/s/ Hugh W. Brenneman, Jr.

Hugh W. Brenneman, Jr., United States Magistrate Judge

Name and Title of Judicial Officer

United States v. Brendon Deshay Davis 1:06-CR-203 ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING REVOCATION HEARING Page 2.

Alternate Findings (B) - (continued)

new address through his employer. It appears defendant was also associating with a pregnant girlfriend who was a felon, again without permission.

On October 9, 2012, defendant failed to appear before the Hon. Paul L. Maloney.

Part II - Written Statement of Reasons for Detention - (continued)